Gentlemen:-

Enclosed find check of Mr. M. L. Morgenthau for nine dollars ($9.00), to cover his membership dues to the Society for the year 1921, and a bronze membership medal which he will thank you to forward to him at the above address.

Very truly yours,

Elwood C. Ellis

Secretary to Mr. Morgenthau.

Dear Mr. Morgenthau:

In response to your note of January 5th, you will see from the receipted bill attached that the price of Four Dollars for the bronze membership medal is faultily obliterated. Since the cost of engraving has increased so much, we have found it necessary to raise the price of these bronze membership medals. With your name and the date, plus the cost of recolouring the medal, the total amount should be something like $5.50.

Will you kindly inform me if this is satisfactory to you, and I will proceed to have the medal engraved immediately in the event of a favourable reply.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:-

Yesterday we mailed you your engraved bronze membership medal, which we trust will be satisfactory.

On receipt of the bill from the engraver I find that the cost of the medal was but four dollars and ninety-six cents, whereas the amount of your two cheques was five dollars and fifty cents. I am therefore returning the difference, fifty-four cents, in stamps herewith.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
